

Official Statement on the passing of Adan Manzano Aguilar

February 6, 2025 - It is with a heavy heart that we can confirm the death of Adan Manzano Aguilar while in New Orleans on assignment for Telemundo Kansas City, and as a member of our Tico Sports Spanish broadcast team. We are cooperating with law enforcement as they are investigating this tragic event. Adan was a talented and professional broadcaster, providing sideline coverage for the Kansas City Chiefs Spanish broadcast and play by play caller for the KC Current. He was an enthusiastic and energetic team player who was well liked and respected. Adan was a devoted father to his young daughter, a helpful colleague, and loyal friend. He will be greatly missed by our TICO Family and will live on in our hearts and memories.

About Tico Sports - Tico Sports, a division of Tico Productions LLC based in Kansas City, Missouri, was founded to produce Spanish-language broadcasts for professional and collegiate sports teams. We specialize in helping teams connect with the rapidly growing Latino market, offering a unique platform to engage this dynamic audience. Through live game broadcasts, impactful community outreach programs, and a robust bilingual social media network, Tico Sports delivers unmatched audience engagement and drives meaningful connections between teams and their fans. To connect with Tico Sports on social media, please visit @ticsports on Facebook, @KCTicoSports on Twitter, and @ticsports on Instagram.